

Perseverance “Madam Speaker” Maremeni

Perseverance Maremeni, stage name “Madam Speaker” is a brand for motivational talks and seminars, social media Influence and empowerment of Women and Youth. Madam Speaker is Part of both YouTube and TikTok content creators influencer Programs Educational contact category. With over 600 thousand followers on TikTok, 31 thousand subscribers on YouTube and over 100 thousand followers on Instagram she has used these platforms for encourage women to heal and become better versions of themselves. Her focal point is on mental wellbeing.

Madam Speaker has since been nominated for Best Digital content creator by Emerge Africa Award and has recently graduated in Kenya for the YouTube black voices fund class of 2023, which is a Google global initiative to empower black content creators with only 6 countries picked across the globe.

Perseverance takes her fans and followers through breaking stigmas and talking on taboo topics that are known but never addressed.

Perseverance has since hosted several weekends camps titled " loving yourself back to life" which have encouraged women to heal from things that were meant to kill them, she is also a host of madam Speakers annual women's conference which this year will be held in Pretoria and Polokwane during the month of August.

Madam speaker is also a self-taught fashion designer and the owner of Crowned Lioness, she is a qualified electrical engineer, currently studying psychology and writing a book.

Social Media Handles: @madam___speaker on all platforms